Journey Overview

India is a lively land of vivid colours and endless activity. It is also a profoundly spiritual place with a proud heritage and extraordinarily diverse scenery. From the intense bustle of Mumbai and Delhi, you'll journey through the Rajasthani countryside and gain a fascinating glimpse into rural life. Stay at the country's most iconic hotels, some converted from royal palaces, travel deep into the wilderness in search of the elusive Bengal tiger, and take an intimate look at life and death in the sacred city of Varanasi, where devout pilgrims flock to the holy Ganges to bathe in the sacred water and cremate their loved ones.

Journey Highlights

- Stay in former palaces, including iconic royal residences such as the lavish Taj Lake Palace in Udaipur and the grand Rambagh Palace in Jaipur
- Embark on a private sunset boat cruise on Lake Pichola, your palace hotel seemingly floating on the water beneath an orange-hued sky, and cap it off with a refreshing cocktail
- Behold the glorious Taj Mahal at sunrise and sunset
- Set out on private safaris in Panna National Park, home to the elusive Bengal tiger, and enjoy an exclusive talk on conservation by a member of the local Pardhi community
- Observe priests performing an aarti ceremony on the banks of the Holy Ganges in Varanasi
- Experience the diverse appeal of India's great cities, from Delhi, a centre for politics and, with its enduring British influence, a blend of old and new

Combine your experience of the Taj Mahal and the Treasures of India with two days at the world-famous Pushkar Fair. See painted and adorned camels; peruse stalls selling camel tassels and woven gypsy dowry bags; and witness Hindu devotees as they throng the ghats around Pushkar Lake in order to bathe and cleanse their sins. Today it is a Leading Hotel of the World and favourite destination for discerning travellers.

Taj Lake Palace, Udaipur

Wonderful in every detail, the Taj Lake Palace was built between 1743 and 1746, and was originally a lake island palace named Jag Niwas after his highness Maharana Jagat Singh II, 62nd successor to the royal dynasty of Mewar. Not surprisingly, it is a truly regal building, its gleaming, white marble façade rising from the surface of the lake topped by domes, arches and gilded detailing.

Inside, the public areas combine breathtaking views with eye-catching interiors. Intricately carved, pure white walls and ceilings stand above tiled floors - all punctuated by fountain courtyards, roof terraces and secluded corners.

The rooms too are utterly palatial. With frescoes and superb original features in abundance, they showcase the finest modern craftsmanship, yet never leave their heritage behind. In truth, they have to be seen to be believed - suffice to say that, with their beautiful décor, furniture and furnishings, they are fit for royalty.

The Oberoi, New Delhi

From its fabulous location in the heart of New Delhi's cosmopolitan metropolis, the Oberoi New Delhi offers a central base for exploring this cultural city.

With luxury and comfort front of mind, this hotel was designed as a contemporary interpretation of Sir Edwin Lutyens' architecture found around the district. This is reflected in the 220 rooms and suites, which are carefully furnished with handpicked items and artwork in line with Lutyens' approach. These somewhat pale into insignificance though when you catch a glimpse of the views through large picture windows of the Delhi golf course and Humayun's Tomb, a UNESCO World Heritage site.

Service here is second to none with butlers available 24 hours every day and four bars and three restaurants. Choose to indulge in the views with a sundowner in the brand new open air rooftop bar Cirrus9, along with the savvy residents of the city. If you would like to be a little more low key, head to either the wine cellar Enoteca, the Club Bar or the Cigar Lounge.

The restaurants cater to international and local tastes with Omya serving authentic Indian cuisine, under the mentorship of internationally renowned chef Alfred Prasad and Baoshuan offering Chinese delicacies on the rooftop terrace. Enjoy a meal at the recently redesigned 360 degree for either breakfast, lunch or dinner.
