- Explore in the company of A&K's renowned Expedition Team, enjoying an all-encompassing enrichment program and lecture series
- Come ashore in the UNESCO-designated Komodo National Park, where you may choose to search for the island's famed Komodo dragon or swim the reefs offshore
- Discover some of the world's rarest and most remarkable beaches and marine ecosystems, including West Papua's Triton Bay and Australia's Great Barrier Reef, with opportunities to snorkel and scuba dive
- Visit with remarkable Indigenous peoples on culture-rich islands, meeting with the Takpala in their village on Alor Island and experiencing an Asmat war canoe greeting in Papua
- Soak in two days on the postcard-worthy Spice Islands, enjoying a far-flung, truly exotic paradise of white sand beaches, brilliant coral reefs and eclectic culture

Itinerary

Oct 11: Arrive Bali, Indonesia

Arrive in Bali, where you are met and transferred to your luxurious beachfront resort. Tonight, join your fellow guests and A&K's Expedition Team for a welcome dinner.

Four Seasons Resort Bali at Jimbaran Bay | Meals: D

Oct 12: Bali | Exquisite Island of the Gods

Bali's rich culture and deep spirituality play out across this "Island of the Gods". Today, you might explore the central highlands, the emerald Jatiluwih Rice Terraces, the region's stunning temples or the beaches of Bukit Peninsula. Return to your luxury resort for an evening at leisure.

Four Seasons Resort Bali at Jimbaran Bay | Meals: BL

Oct 13: Bali | Timeless Balinese City of Denpasar

Head to Denpasar, Bali's lively capital. Here, discover the lotus throne of Jagatnatha Temple, bustling Pasar Kreneng Market and the fortifications of Jro Kuta Palace. Later, board your luxury expedition cruiser.

Le Jacques Cartier | Meals: BLD

Oct 14: Satonda Island | Tears of a King

Cruise to Indonesia's Lesser Sunda Islands, coming ashore at Satonda, a secluded island paradise formed from the caldera of an ancient volcano. Here, swim or snorkel the peaceful crater lake and learn its moving Indigenous origin story, a tragic tale involving the tears of a forlorn king.

Le Jacques Cartier | Meals: BLD

Oct 15: Komodo National Park | Home of the Dragon

Renowned for its namesake dragons, Komodo National Park beguiles visitors with its striking pink sands, sweeping coastal terrain and dazzling marine life. Once ashore, track the seldom-encountered Komodo dragon with your naturalist guide. Then, enjoy an opportunity to snorkel or dive the biodiverse reefs offshore.

Le Jacques Cartier | Meals: BLD

Oct 16: Alor Island | Indigenous Island Culture

Cruise amid the white sand beaches and clear bays of the Alor archipelago, coming ashore on the island of Alor to visit the Indigenous Takpala peoples' local village, museum and market. Alternatively, don your scuba gear for a remarkable diving adventure in the pristine waters of the Alor archipelago.

Le Jacques Cartier / Meals: BLD

Oct 17: At Sea | Sparkling Waters Of The South Pacific

Enjoy a relaxing day of onboard programming, including lectures from your Expedition Team.

Le Jacques Cartier / Meals: BLD

Oct 18: Maluku Islands | Idyllic Spice Islands

Sail to the spice islands of Maluku's Banda archipelago, the only source of nutmeg and mace in colonial times. Come ashore on Banda Island to explore its eclectic architecture, or snorkel or dive the spectacular reefs offshore.

Le Jacques Cartier / Meals: BLD

Oct 19: Maluku Islands | White Sands Of The Kai Islands

Continue to the southeastern Maluku Islands and the the Kai archipelago, heading ashore to relax on pristine white-sand beaches, or swim or snorkel its azure waters.

Le Jacques Cartier / Meals: BLD

Oct 20: West Papua | Tropical Falls

Cruise to West Papua, Indonesia's easternmost enclave. West Papua comprises roughly half the landmass of New Guinea Island and harbours an astounding wealth of biodiversity both onshore and off. Embark on a Zodiac excursion to the Mommon Peninsula and Kiti-Kiti Waterfall, its breathtaking falls cascading from a tropical rainforest into the open sea below. Later, cruise to the remote island of Karas for an afternoon of swimming or diving.

Le Jacques Cartier / Meals: BLD

Oct 21: Triton Bay | Spectacular Undersea Ecosystem

Continue east to Triton Bay, a world-renowned dive site harbouring the planet's greatest biodiversity of fish and coral species. Here, dive into an aquatic paradise of pygmy seahorses, marlin, sweetlips and soft corals. Additionally, embark on a Zodiac excursion of the bay's magnificent rainforest-capped karst formations.

Le Jacques Cartier / Meals: BLD

Oct 22: Papua | Land of a Thousand Cultures

Arrive in Agats, the capital of South Papua's Asmat Regency. This culturally diverse region harbours some 44 Indigenous tribes that remain largely isolated from the modern world. Here, experience a traditional war canoe greeting and browse the crafts of local artisans.

Le Jacques Cartier / Meals: BLD

Oct 23: At Sea | Cruising to Australia

Unwind aboard at the pool or spa, pausing for enriching lectures about the Great Barrier Reef.

Le Jacques Cartier / Meals: BLD

Oct 24: Thursday Island, Australia | Cook's Legacy

Today, you might follow in Captain James Cook's footsteps as you land on the Australian soil of Thursday Island, a former pearl-diving boomtown and an enduring enclave of Indigenous culture.

Le Jacques Cartier / Meals: BLD

Oct 25: At Sea | Great Barrier Reef

Enjoy a relaxing day cruising the Coral Sea. Conditions permitting, pause to snorkel or dive a magnificent reef.

Le Jacques Cartier / Meals: BLD

Oct 26: Lizard Island | A Parting Glimpse

A jewel of the Great Barrier Reef, Lizard Island dazzles with rugged mountains, glistening beaches and vibrant marine life. Here, relax on a secluded beach, swim in the lagoon, join a nature walk, or snorkel or dive the reef.

Le Jacques Cartier / Meals: BLD

Oct 27: Depart Cairns

Disembark in Cairns, where you are transferred to the airport for your homebound departure or continue on to join the post-tour extension.

Accommodation

Four Seasons Resort Bali at Jimbaran Bay

Clinging to Bali's south-western coast, the Four Seasons Resort Bali at Jimbaran Bay offers panoramic views of the sacred Mount Agung and the sweeping Jimbaran Bay beyond. A delightful beach lies at the foot of 35 acres of landscaped gardens, terraced with sparkling infinity-edge swimming pools and dotted with secluded villas.

Every villa is built around a private, landscaped courtyard with sunloungers, a plunge pool and thatched alfresco dining area. Families will adore the Family Premier Villas with their large plunge pools, expansive living area and separate Children's Room with sofa bed, television and writing desk. We particularly love the Premier Ocean Villas with large bedroom and living area, large plunge pool, sundeck with poolside bale and panoramic ocean views. Choose from four fabulous restaurants, each offering its own take on local and world cuisine, visit the luxurious Indonesian spa, or simply relax by the pool or on the beach. Broaden your repertoire at the cooking school, while kids clubs, an array of adventure, sporting and cultural activities offer plenty of entertainment if you want to get out and about.

Why we like it

- Four Seasons Resort Bali at Jimbaran Bay takes luxury and comfort to the next level, while holding true to its original Balinese Village concept.

- Enjoy panoramic views of the sacred Mount Agung and the sweeping Jimbaran Bay Beyond
- Spacious, luxury pool villas dotted amongst 35 acres of landscaped gardens
- Perfect for families

Le Jacques Cartier

Step aboard the elegant Le Jacques Cartier and discover a vessel designed for adventure with all the comforts of a luxury five-star hotel. A heated swimming pool, French-inspired restaurants, spa, theatre, and high-tech glimpse of the marine world await.

Designed to be environmentally friendly, Le Jacques Cartier is a modern ship with slender, tapered lines, equipped with a mix of cutting-edge technology and the finest French cuisine.

Each of the 92 air-conditioned staterooms and suites are exquisitely decorated and feature a balcony or terrace with large sliding glass doors offering spectacular views.

The chefs on board instil the French 'art of living' through the menu and share their passion for local produce infusing their dishes with ingredients collected during stopovers. Le Nautilus restaurant is large enough to accommodate all 148 passengers during one sitting. The Grill Restaurant is the perfect place for a lazy lunch with a book borrowed from the library.

The Blue Eye is a multi-sensory lounge located below the waterline. Enjoy a nautical journey of discovery along the seabed thanks to its cutting-edge digital screens, hydrophones and 'body listening' sofas which can be followed by a drink in the bar. The theatre has cutting-edge lighting and sound technology, perfect for on-board lectures.

The seawater pool, which features a counter current, is on the third deck of this seven-deck ship and offers the ultimate infinity experience. Watch the world go by from one of the sofas on the sun deck before an indulging spa treatment.
