Day 3: Pure Amazon | Learning From the Experts

Start your day at dawn's first light on an expert-led birding excursion, viewing any of the region's hundreds of bird species as well as amphibians, reptiles and mammals. Enjoy an exclusive midday lecture from one of the local experts on board. Later, opt to set out by skiff for a night safari.

Pure Amazon | Meals: BLD

Day 4: Pure Amazon | Village Visit & Piranha Fishing

Cruise along the Pacayai River aboard a skiff for up-close looks at shoreline flora and fauna and be sure to scan the forest canopy for long-limbed spider monkeys or an endearingly slow-moving sloth.

Pure Amazon | Meals: BLD

Day 5: Pure Amazon

Go ashore to visit the residents of a local village to learn about daily life deep in the Amazon. Venture by skiff on another river foray, perhaps fishing for piranha. Later, keep a watch for the rare pink river dolphin and chat with your vessel's expert guides, who recount stories of life in the Amazon.

Accommodation

Pure Amazon

The Amazon Basin is the biggest tropical rainforest on earth. Realistically, there's only one way to explore it: by boat. And certainly, there's only one way to explore it in the highest of high style: aboard Pure Amazon.

This meticulously conceived, state-of-the-art riverboat is quite simply unique in the region in terms of the material comfort and human expertise that it provides. A maximum of 22 passengers per cruise and a one-to-one guest-staff ratio guarantee an intimate, blissfully uncrowded, wholly focused experience, in which every detail is managed by a best-in-class local team.

Pure Amazon operates three-, four- and seven-night itineraries in and around the Pacaya Samiria National Reserve, a pristine protected area of some 21,000 square kilometres in northeastern Peru.

The opportunities for wildlife spotting – from pink dolphins to colourful macaws – are matchless, whether on expert-guided excursions by land or water or observed through one of the wall-to-wall panoramic windows in your own superbly appointed suite, as you contemplate a sunset glass of something chilled and interesting on the top-deck Sky Lounge before a leisurely dinner prepared by your award-winning onboard chef. The rainbow-plumed macaws themselves will gaze down and squawk in envy from their treetop perches.

Why we like it

- Uniquely intimate boutique river cruise with a maximum of 22 passengers, ideal for solo travellers, small groups or private charter
- Discreetly sumptuous interior design by renowned architect Adriana Granato
- Flexible excursions on land and water with best-in-class local guides
- A variety of itineraries over three, four or seven nights
- Our top tip: the Sky Lounge is as good for wildlife-spotting during the day as it is for stargazing at night
