Accommodation

Bumi Hills Safari Lodge, Lake Kariba

Bumi Hills has 20 en suite rooms (divided into standard and premium depending on the size and location). The premium rooms are larger both in bedroom and bathroom with a better lake view and more privacy. The lodge is nestled in the natural bush on top of the hills and offers both a cooling breeze and fantastic views of the lake. Dinners are served in the formal dining room or more usually, on the terrace overlooking the lakeshore. A new feature at Bumi Hills is the spa with sauna, steam room, cold water plunge pool, massage tents, relaxation area and sundeck.

Why we like it

- Located on the top of a hill 55km south west of Kariba town, with the Zambezi escarpment as its backdrop and the vastness of Lake Kariba below
- The infinity swimming pool, terrace cocktail bar and the wellness spa, each have awe-inspiring vistas over the lake and the game-rich shoreline
- Dean McGregor is the Professional Guide at Bumi Hills Safari Lodge renowned as one of Zimbabwe's very best and has over 20 years of experience in the region
- Activities on offer are game drives in open vehicles, game walks, sailing on the 30 foot catamaran, fishing, bird watching and cultural visits
