Itinerary

Day 1: Melbourne - Coober Pedy

Depart Melbourne by private jet to Coober Pedy, Australia's opal capital, with a sun-baked lunar landscape. This quirky town, known for underground living, opals and spectacular sunsets, is unlike anywhere else. Be left in awe on a guided tour on foot through Anna Creek Station, neighbouring Australia's smallest town William Creek, and take to the skies for an aerial admiration of Lake Eyre, Australia's largest Salt Lake. A short flight on you'll visit Mount Eba Station, renowned as the geographical centre of South Australia with time for lunch and a wander to admire the old homestead and shearing shed.

Take to the air again for a bird's-eye view of the Anna Creek Painted Hills, an extraordinary rocky outcrop, before landing for a guided walk through the spectacularly contrasting landscapes hiding ancient fossils. Return by air to Coober Pedy for a welcome 3 course dinner at Umbertos Restaurant, within your extraordinary Desert Cave Hotel. Bed down in your spacious underground room ahead of another day of adventure.

Day 2: Coober Pedy - Birdsville

After breakfast depart on a half-day private Desert Cave Experience. Tour Coober Pedy, hearing about its history, and venture down a former working mine to see opal trace embedded in the sandstone. Admire the breathtaking Breakaways, a kaleidoscope of colourful exposed sandstone, and savour some refreshments as you drink in spectacular views over the Moon Plain - once an inland sea. See the famous Dog Fence (dingo fence) - stretching 5,300 km across Australia. Be awed by the Serbian Underground Church, an icon of traditional Serbian Orthodox architecture and fascinating sandstone carvings.

After your tour, jet off to Birdsville. With a local guide, gain an insight into the Aboriginal dreamtime and the town artwork, in between exploring the resilient buildings and their history.

Make your way to the edge of the Simpson Desert toward 'Big Red' the sand dune that marks the border to this expansive otherworldly wilderness, enroute being taught stories about the early explorers, Tom Kruise and Captain Midnight.

Drive to the top of this majestic monument, towering 30 metres into the sky and enjoy the spectacular sunset with a celebratory drink. Return to the Birdsville Hotel for a 3-course dinner.

Accommodation

Desert Cave Hotel, Cooper Pedy

Experience accommodation Coober Pedy style - underground in the naturally cool sandstone subterranean surrounds. This oasis in the desert is carved out of the hillside with rooms above and below ground, all are decorated using native rocks and mineral colours reflecting the location. There is a choice of dining options, above and below ground, with shops, spa and an outdoor swimming pool.

Qualia, Whitsundays

A byword for Hamilton Island luxury, qualia is situated on the secluded northern-most tip of Hamilton Island surrounded by all the splendour of the Great Barrier Reef. The resort's beautiful design is the work of Australian architect Chris Beckingham. His philosophy was to create a luxurious retreat that stimulates the senses and draws the outside in.

The resulting design creates a superb sense of space. Set among native Eucalypts, each pavilion has been handcrafted from the finest local timber and stone. To complement the natural surrounds, Dennis Nona's artworks adorn the walls and Freedman Rembel has furnished the interiors with fabrics and patterns inspired by nature.

Every detail of this fabulous resort is designed to perfection, to create a truly wonderful destination.

Why we like it

- Superb accommodation incorporates private outdoor spaces, some with their own pools
- Just a stone's throw off the Queensland coast, qualia sits in the heart of the Great Barrier Reef, on the northernmost tip of Hamilton Island
- qualia's Executive Chef visited every six star resort in the South Pacific before designing modern Australian and Asian menus for two exclusive restaurants - Long Pavillion and Pebble Beach
- Spa qualia offers the ultimate in anti-stress, anti-aging, detoxifying and cleansing treatments including "Bularri Yarrul", a hot stone massage using 300 million year old stones

- The resort has a superb outdoor pool
